2. New corporate logo

The last line of the army, the few elite troops who continued to fight to the end to defend the main camp, were called "Shingari" and praised for their courage and honor.

The logo expresses the attitude of the SUNRISE team members who are also willing to suffer hardship for the sake of their beliefs and their philosophy towards investments resembling the vigor and bravery of the military flag of the "Shingari", which faced the opposite direction to defend the main camp from its adversaries.

Simultaneously the logo also illustrates our continued stance of supporting our business partners behind the scenes, including our investee companies, progressing side by side, which is expressed in the shape of the logo as light and shadow.
